RWR Research Rubric

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Research Questions</th>
<th>Strategies</th>
<th>Selecting relevant information</th>
<th>Planning</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Novice
- Selects a topic to investigate with assistance.
- Uses research process with assistance.
- Selects information, often copying phrases.
- Follows organizational plan with supervision.

Apprentice
- Chooses a topic and narrows it.
- Follows a provided research plan or process.
- Selects information based on topic and summarizes or paraphrases.
- Organizes time and resources based on models, peer support, group work.

Practitioner
- Forms and pursues a question.
- Develops a way of researching the question or pursuing the point of view.
- Selects relevant sources and information.
- Organizes time and resources independently.

Expert
- Develops thoughtful and original questions.
- Pursues research strategies that are well-matched to the question (e.g. observation, interviews, data collection, and reading) and recognizes new questions or issues as they arise.
- Selects relevant and powerful information from a range of diverse sources.
- Organizes time and resources to allow for verification, reflection and revision.